

ABSTRACT

Herlina Irianti (3135050018): THE TRANSLATION OF *THE POWER OF POSITIVE LIVING. Final Report of Diploma III English Vocational Program, Adab and Humanites Faculty, State Islamic University Sunan Gunung Djati, Supervised by Udayani Permaludin, S.S., M.Pd

The use of literal translation method is a method that often used by translators in translating English text into Indonesian. Therefore, the writer is interested in translating the book entitled "The Power of Positive Living". The purpose of this translation are: (1) To fulfill the final assignment for Diploma III English Vocational; (2) To improve the skill on; (3) To adds vocabulary; (4) To know the content the book that motivation people to positive living; (5) To share the knowledge from that book.

The writer used translation method that based on the theory of Newmark (1988b). This study tries to expose the literal translation method in the book entitled "The Power of Positive Living". The discovery reveals that the literal translation method almost used in every sentence.

Key Terms: english, translation, translation method.

