ABSTRACT

For village government administrators to be able to achieve their performance goals, an institution is needed to carry out transformational and supervisory duties on village performance. 32 of 2004 article 209 it is stated that the BPD has the function of establishing village regulations with the village head, accommodating and channeling the aspirations of the community. The Village Consultative Body (BPD) has an important role in village government institutions according to the Regulation of the Minister of Home Affairs of the Republic of Indonesia Number. 110 of 2016 explains that the function of the BPD is to discuss and agree on draft village regulations with the Village Head, accommodate and channel the aspirations of the village community and supervise the performance of the village head. Based on the research, the researchers found problems that occurred in the field, namely that the community did not fully know the role and function of the BPD, the supervisory role of the BPD was not optimal, and there was no optimization of cooperation between the BPD and the village. The type of research method in this research is a qualitative method which aims to reveal, describe, and conclude the results of problem solving in a certain way according to the research procedure. The results of the study can be concluded that the role of the BPD in providing information on the aspirations of the community in Purwasari Village, Cicurug District is quite maximal because community aspirations can be conveyed in village meeting forums, the role of the Village Consultative Body (BPD) with the stages of planning, implementing and monitoring village performance, so that village development can be maximized in accordance with the interests of society. The supporting factors are the support and participation of the community, the good cooperative relationship between the BPD and the Village Government, and the inhibiting factors are the lack of allowances, the less optimal infrastructure, the lack of human resources for BPD members, the pros and cons of the community towards each decision made.
