

CHAPTER IV

ANALYSIS AND DISCUSSION

This chapter discusses the findings and analysis of the diction that contains the symbol of love in the song lyrics from Frank Sinatra's. It also discussed what denotative and connotative meanings are contained in the symbol of love found in this lyrics.

4.1 The Dictions Found on the Frank Sinatra's Song Lyrics Which Represent the Symbol of Love

Here is the discussion about the diction which represent the symbol of love in Frank Sinatra's song lyrics according to the theory of semiotics by Roland Barthes as explained in the previous chapter.

According to Gorys Keraf, diction is the notion of choice of word or diction is much broader than what is reflected, in the relationship of those words. This term is not only used to express an idea, but also includes phraseology, style, and expression (Keraf, 2008).

The following it will be presented the results of the analysis of the diction found in the Frank Sinatra's song lyrics which represents the symbol of love, which will be arranged based on the data from no 1 to the last data no 36.

First Title : “I’ll Only Miss Her When I Think Of Her”

Data No 1, I’ll only miss her when I think of her
And I’ll think of her all the time

In the lyrics of the song, the symbol of love can be seen through several choices of words deliberately placed on the lyrics by the author. As the love symbol of the quotes contained in the lyrics of this song, "longing", and "thinking" cause it is still a very clear symbol of love. In the first verse there is a word that contains the symbol of love, the quote "miss" and "think". The word of miss itself means the longing for things that ever happened in life so that we can agree together if the word "miss" is a word that symbolizes love caused by the loss of a beloved woman figure, as well as longing for all. Beautiful events in the life of romance.

While for the word think itself has a sense of direct one mind towards someone or something; use one's mind actively to form connected ideas. Think can be a symbol of love because it is an action that occurs in the human mind. In addition, in a love think can be one of the triggers of a great love by continuing to think of the lovers of the heart, then the real love will continue to awake because it is always imagined his presence.

According to the theory of symbols from Chadwick, symbols can therefore be defined as the art of the expressing ideas and emotions not by describing them directly, not by defining them through over comparisons with concrete images, but by suggesting what these ideas and emotions are, by re-creating them in the mind of the reader through the use of explained symbols (Chadwick, 1971).

Based on the opinion from Chadwick it can be concluded if the words "miss" and "think" are included into the symbol of love because the two words are a word that shows an expression and emotion from someone who is experiencing feelings of love with indirectly described.

While for the word "think" itself in the dictionary contains the meaning of direct one mind towards someone or something; use one's mind actively to form connected ideas. However, in the context of the sentence contained in these lyrics, the word "think" is an activity that occurs due to the writer feels lost the love of his heart. As for its connotative meaning it has a same with the denotative meaning for the word "miss". Every person who is in love that certainly comes to mind is the figure of the sweetheart who has filled the most beautiful place in his life. That is what will create a longing when we lose that precious thing. Therefore, love will always feel the longing because of always thinking about who has and what will happen with our spouse. Besides, all that beauty is called love that is blessed by God to man who always keeps his loyalty.

Data No 2 : Maybe in time, I guess, the longing will grow the slightest bit less

In the next in the part of song lyrics there is any quotation that is represented into the symbol of love that is a quotation in the word "longing". Longing itself is an expression caused by someone who is experiencing a broken heart because he will lose all the love that has been felt before. Longing in this case is to the figure of a loved partner, that really, never lies.

Longing can be referred to as a symbol of love based on the opinions expressed by Chadwick. It says if the symbol is the art of expressing ideas and emotions not by describing them directly, not by defining them through over comparisons with concrete images, but by suggesting what these ideas and emotions are, by re-creating them in the mind of the reader through the use of express symbols (Chadwick, 1971).

Based on the opinion above from Chadwick, the symbol is part of the art that serves to express an idea or emotion, but not explained directly, but through the description of other things. This has a lot to do with the word "longing" which symbolizes love in the lyrics of this song because the word is an expression and expression that comes out of humans who are broken heart and are experiencing the emptiness of heart. The longing will be created for every broken-heart human being and that is part of the symbol that expresses an ending love.

Data No 3 : I'll bet I forget her completely
In about a hun-dred years

The quotation contains an extraordinary love that describes the existence of true love. Sincere and true love will not easily fade away from the memory of every human being who, is in love. It will make every human being difficult to move on because trapped in the memory of his true love is very strong.

As the statement of the rabiah Al adawiyah who is a Sufi, he mentions that true love is a portrayal of the perceived longing of a person. If there is true love in the heart surely that someone will feel what will felt and become a meaning of true love. And if someone betrayed that true love it would fail and become a wound.

It is very clear from the quote that contains the symbol of love above. It means if it is very difficult to forget a loved one with a sincere heart, it even takes a very long time to carry the pain of losing that true love. This shows if the opinion of Rabiah Al Adawiyah has a very strong connection to the quotation of Frank Sinatra song lyrics that contain the symbol of true love.

Second Title : The song lyrics Titled “When Somebody Loves You”

Data No 4 :   When somebody loves you, you feel it in your heart
                   When somebody loves you, you know it from the start

In the next lyrics there is a quote that contains a symbol of love in it. Love is a gift that god gives to every man who seeks to seek his true love.

One day, Plato asked his teacher, "What is love? How can I find it? "His teacher answered," There is a vast wheat field in front. Walk forward without turning back, and pick only one stalk. If you find the most magnificent stalk, then you have found love" (Philips, 2008).

The feelings that vibrate and can only be felt by people who are in love that is called love. The symbol of love contained in this song lyric quotes match the characteristics that love him. In the quotation it is explained that everyone who, is in love will feel in the heart. And that is right. In addition, with me because the author himself has felt an energy of extraordinary love.

Data No 5 : Every kiss becomes more than a kiss
 Each look, each touch they mean so much
 And that's when you discover how it feels to be a lover

The first we will find the meaning of the word “miss”. From the dictionary, it means the touch or caress with the lips as a sign of love, sexual desire, or greeting. Kiss in a love really sound familiar. However, the words kiss more often symbolizes a passion in love and more than just a the complement in a relationship.

Can be said if the word is a love that means eroticism. In addition, understanding Erich's love. Erotic love is love that craves fusion and union with others. Fromm knowledge that sexual intercourse is the actualization of love in this type of erotic love, but the emphasized love is productive love that contains elements of attention, responsibility, respect and understanding (Fromm, 1990).

It is very clear if the word kiss is a word that contains a symbol of love because it is synonymous with erotic love associated with the passion and lust of both lovers who love each other. Kiss is used as a benchmark of obligatory in a relationship between two couples who love each other because the kiss proves the amount of love given to their partner.

Think about the word "look" that contains a symbol of love. Look itself can be interpreted as a goal, we see a specific object or a goal. However, based on the true meaning of the dictionary if the word look has the meaning of a direct one gaze in a specified direction.

Look is a word that has a very close relationship in love. Love is neither physical nor position or thrown. What is seen from a love is a sincere heart and dare to sacrifice for his sincerity. This is supported by the opinion of Guth, who said that if a word containing symbols is a description of a broad meaning.

Guth said that the symbols are there. Symbol is a detail, a character, or an incident that has a meaning beyond its literal role in the narrative. In order to fully respond to a story, it is necessary to become sensitive to symbolic overtones and implications (Guth, 1997).

So it can be concluded if a word can be called a symbol because the word has a broad meaning that is beyond the narrative in a story or the context of an essay. This is also the same relations with the word look, which is a word that symbolizes love because it is seen from the meaning that is beyond the word is very broad. And the word look is an important part in a love-oriented acceptance of what it is with the full body and soul.

And the next quote that contains the symbol of love that is on the word "lover". When looking at the meaning of dictionary, lover has a meaning a partner in a sexual or romantic relationship outside marriage. From the sense contained in the dictionary alone is strongly explained if the word lover contains a symbol of love. Lover himself is a person who is experiencing a love in his life. And usually lover is a person who is struggling to find true love, can be said also if lover is a thought fighter love. The person who has earned his true love who will accompany it until his old age then it is not the figure of the lover. Lover itself is a representation of people who are tough, persistent, and full of great motivation in looking to love and never despair even if he ever fell in the same hole.

In literature, a symbol is a thing that suggests more than its literal meaning, it does not stand for anything any meaning, not for anything definite. Symbols, specifically in the fiction or in the novel not to be abstract terms, but to be perceptible objects (Kennedy, 1983).

Based on the expression from Kennedy above, the word lover is part of the symbol of love because lover itself is a main object in a romance. This is in accordance with the theory of symbols that say if a word contains a symbol if it becomes a clear object and has a function that underlies a thing. The next quotes is found on the following piece of lyric,

Data No 6 :   When somebody loves you, it shows in every smile
                   When somebody loves you, your life becomes worthwhile
                   Always caring, always sharing everything you do

It shown in every smile is a sentence that contains the symbol of love. The word symbolizes love based on the meaning contained in it.

While according to Guth, the symbols are images that have a meaning beyond themselves. Symbol is a detail, a character, or an incident that has a meaning beyond its literal role in the narrative. In order to fully respond to a story, it is necessary to become sensitive to symbolic overtones and implications (Guth, 1997).

When viewed from Guth's opinion of the symbol, then the sentence is shown in every smile included into a word that has elements of the symbol of love. The sentence has a meaning beyond its literal role in the narrative. So it can be said if the sentence contains a symbol of love based on the meaning contained in the sentence, which is a picture of a particular event that aims to express a real truth. The sentence contains the meaning of something good or beautiful will be seen on the smile of a person. In the context of love the meaning is very much in accordance with what has happened that is, if we admire a woman, then when he congregates it shows a form of feeling from within the soul if he is a friendly and very coveted.

Love also contains certain basic elements of attention, responsibility, appreciation, and understanding. Love is care means that in loving, we must give active attention to the lives and developments of our loved ones. This is evident, for example, in the mother's love for her child. The claim that the mother loves her child will be doubted if the mother looks unconcerned and neglects her child. The essence of love is too excessively for something and make it grow. The next aspect of love is responsibility. Being responsible means being able and ready to "respond". The point is that the life we love is not only a matter of him, but it is also our problem, our responsibility. We are partly responsible for the lives of our loved ones as we are responsible for ourselves (Fromm, 1990).

Very clearly said in the above quotation if the word "love" requires care and a commitment to live life together. So in the excerpt from the lyrics of this song there is a phrase "always caring, always sharing everything you do" which is very clear once contain the symbol of love in it in accordance with what has been delivered by Erich Fromm above.

Data No 7 : When somebody loves you like I love you

I love you is a very common word heard by us. Especially for people who are in romantic relationship is very beautiful words to be heard. In this lyrics, the word i love you has a very clear and very common contained the symbol of love. When the word is spoken from the mouth of a man who is in love, then all the hopes behind it. In accordance with what Perrine has explained, if a word can be a symbol because it has many or more meaning. Structure, sounds and feelings are part of a series of sentences and words that can be expressed as symbols. (Perrine, 1974).

The word "I love you" is an expression of feeling that represents the heart's content to be able to have the whole body and soul of the beloved figure. There is a hope and also a passion to be able to have and make it as a pretty fairy fairy figure to guard and protect the heart of the lovable couple.

Third Tittle : The song lyrics Titled “Dear Heart”

Data No 8 : Dear heart, wish you were here to warm this night
My dear heart, it seems like a year since you've been out of my sight

The first quote shows that in the word there is an erotic love symbol. To warm this night, has a meaning to warm up tonight. However, the word can be said an erotic love symbol because there is a hidden meaning of the word. Can be a hug, a kiss, or even the needs of lust both couples who must be equally met. This is in accordance with the opinion from Kennedy. He said that symbol is something that contains a phrase that is more than its literal meaning.

According to Kennedy, a symbol is a thing that suggests more than its literal meaning, it generally does not “stand for” any one meaning, not for anything definite. Symbols, specifically in the fiction or in the novel tend not to be abstract terms, but to be perceptible objects (Kennedy 1983).

The quotation “to warm this night” it is have a relation with the theory symbol by Kennedy if from background in the word there is have a meaning that has a clear object that is intended to give an explanation to the reader about what will be done. And the word includes the symbol of love because the context of its meaning is closely related to the activities that often occur in a romantic relationship.

Heart, a word that is very often heard and often spoken by us in every day the word “heart” itself when viewed in the dictionary have the sense as the center of one's thoughts and emotions, especially love or affection. So based on the notion of the oxford dictionary was already explained if the heart is symbolizing a love because in the heart there is love and love that grow and develop for our spouse. The word heart is often used in an attempt to symbolize a love because the human heart basically has feelings. The feelings between likes and dislikes of each opposite sex depend on the owner of the heart and that is one of the reasons why the word heart belongs to a symbol of love.

The heart is the giving by God, and every human being will not know from one's heart. In addition, with the same mysterious love like the heart, but the love is present in the heart because of the loving and like to the opposite sex or our partner.

When the heart and feelings be unity, there will be a love with sincere and very holiness. And the last quotation from this part in the first stanza in this lyrics is the word “my sight”, maybe that is not special word to be heard, even tend to be ordinary. It is not surprising because the word has the meaning of a view or gaze that refers to a particular object.

Still according to Kennedy and his opinion about the symbol, he said if a word in a sentence can be regarded as a symbol because the word has another definition in accordance with the real sense. (Kennedy, 1983).

It is very clear if the word is included in a symbol, which is a symbol of love in this study because the quote has a different meaning from the real meaning. My sight in a love contains a very deep meaning, one of which the word explains if the beloved beloved figure will not easily disappear instantly from the eyes of the person who feels his love.

Data No 9 : It's a lonesome town all right
But soon I'll kiss you hello at our front door

The words lonesome in this lyrics have the same meaning as those in the dictionary. Both equally mean loneliness. This is supported by excerpts on the lyrics of the song which states lonesome.

Data No 10 : And dear heart, I want you to know
I'll leave your arms never more

In this lyrics, the author symbolizes the word love in the form of sadness through the word lonesome, which is a natural thing because in a love that is not always in the inner pleasure.

Can be said if the word “kiss” is a part of love that means eroticism. In addition, understanding Erich's love. Erotic love is love that craves fusion and union with others. Fromm knowledge that sexual intercourse is the actualization of love in this type of erotic love, but the emphasized love is productive love that contains elements of attention, responsibility, respect and understanding (Erich, 2008).

It is very clear if the word “kiss” is a word that contains a symbol of love because it is synonymous with erotic love associated with the passion and lust of both lovers who love each other. Kiss is used as a benchmark of obligatory in a relationship between two couples who love each other because the kiss proves the amount of love given to their partner.

Fourth Tittle , The song lyrics Titled “Any Time At All”

Data No 11 : Anytime, anytime you want me, honey, just let me know.

Data No 12 : When you need affection, and you're looking for somewhere to go,

A sweet, sticky yellowish-brown fluid made by bees and other insects from nectar collected from flowers. The word “honey” it describes a sweet things.

In a love built between two pairs of women and men, to express a characteristic to their spouse then a marker is needed to make our spouse different from others because it has a special calling. Honey in this context is a word that contains elements of the symbol of love because it is a nickname intended for people we care about.

It is said by Kennedy if the symbol is a thing that suggests more than its literal meaning, it generally does not “stand for” any one meaning, not for anything definite. Symbols, specifically in the fiction or in the novel tend not to be abstract terms, but to be perceptible objects (Kennedy, 1983).

As the Kennedy said above, if the symbol is more impressive than the literal. The point is that a word containing symbols has a deeper meaning as well as detailed according to the context of the sentence that supports the word. In the word "honey" when associated with love then the meaning will be different from the literal meaning of the word. And based on that opinion, the word "honey" is a word that shows the symbol of love because seen from its own meaning the word refers to a specific thing that is about an expression of pride because it is able to have the ideal figure in the heart, so the word is used as a distinguishing word from the other in the form of affectionate calls.

The next is a word “affection”. Affection it means that have a sense as a gentle feeling of fondness or liking. In this case, the word affection symbolizes passionate love or erotic love.

Structure, Sound, and Sense, states that a symbol may have more than one meaning. He adds that it is most effective a symbol is like many faceted jewels. It flashes different colours when it is turned in the light. Furthermore, the area of symbols is always controlled by the context. Therefore, it can be said that the meaning of a literary symbol must be established and supported by the entire context of the literary work, which means that a particular symbol has its meaning in the story. (Perrine, 1974).

That word can be called a symbol because according to the above quotation because the word affection has another meaning that is different from the actual meaning. The real meaning literally means a gentle feeling. However, in this context the word affection has another meaning that is a passion that occurs because of lust that underlies a love. So from the meaning, the word "affection" in this lyric contains a symbol of love.

The words that show their love symbols contained in the quotations from the lyrics below:

Data No 13 : I'll be there beside you even if I have to crawl, Anytime you want me, I'm saying, anytime at all.

The following quotation in this lyrics contain a symbol of love in the form of a sacrifice. In a relationship called love, it is defined as an active productive enterprise involving commitment, respect, attention, and a sense of unity (Swihart, 1977). As quoted in this lyric, "I'll be there beside you" is a word usually spoken by couples who are in a relationship of love, this is a commitment of them and this is a form of attention and a form of loyalty between the two. No matter what they are both going through, their love and body will always be on their side.

Based on what I have described above, the phrase I'll be there beside you "is very clearly indicates the existence of a symbol of love in it. Based on the theory of symbols, a word in the form of a picture of a real object or imagination that inspires feelings or aroused by feelings. With objects, with each other, and with the subject (Dillistone, 1966).

So the conclusion that can be taken why the quotation is included into the symbol of love because seen from the meaning contained therein when referring to the theory of the symbol above, "i'll be there beside you" is a word spoken based on the feeling to have whole soul and the body of the lover, the quote is also a feeling directed at the beloved object of the woman.

Fifth Tittle : The song lyrics Titled "September Song"

Data No 14 : I'd let the old Earth make a couple of whirls

Data No 15 : While I plied her with tears in lieu of pearls

A word that has a diverse meaning beyond the context of sense according to Kennedy is called a symbol. a symbol is a thing that suggests more than its literal meaning, it does not stand for anything any meaning, not for anything definite. Symbols, specifically in the fiction or in the novel not to be abstract terms, but to be perceptible objects (Kennedy, 1983).

If we associate with the quotation on the lyrics that is in the word "couple" in accordance with what has been expressed by Kennedy above then the word is a word that contains the symbol of love because "couple" has a different meaning based on the context of the sentence. The word shows a meaning that states if a love can happen because of a woman and men who love each other, and have a sense of wanting to have between the couple is the couple. So, the word "couple" in the context of the lyrics has a different meaning from the literal sense. And according to Kennedy it is called a symbol because he thinks a word can be called a symbol because it has a diverse understanding beyond the literal sense of the word.

The next quotation that show have correlation with symbol of love that is the word "tears". Tears itself based on the definition from the dictionary is a "sadness". This can be said to be accurate and highly relevant when associated with love because in a love that is built with full struggle is certainly not easy, not only happiness that is always felt, but in love the sadness will also be felt by couples who are in a relationship.

An excerpt from Erich Fromm would be a precise representation of the above explanation which states if the word "tears" belongs to a love symbol because of the background of all mental activity and lust, and sadness is part of an activity in a love that is controlled by the human condition, which is motivated by the existence of lust. Here is an explanation of a love according to him, in understanding adult love, first need to understand that love is a form of "activity" which requires the existence of freedom. In love, man must be aware of the object of his motivation. Motivation in the form of lust like jealousy, jealousy, passion, and all forms of greed will make man in a "controlled" condition. Man must free from all this, become an active, and become master of his own will (Fromm, 1990).

In the next lyrics there is a word that has a symbol of love int that on the quotation as follows,

Data No 16 : They answer with words and a clover ring

Ring is a very ordinary word and tends to be meaningless. Based on the literal sense of the dictionary means a small circular band, typically of precious metal and often set with one or more gemstones, worn on a finger as an ornament or a token of marriage, engagement, or authority.

In modern times today or perhaps from hundreds of years ago, people agree that a "ring" has a great symbol of love. "Ring symbolizes an eternal true love, can also mean a beautiful thing for our lover as a symbol of the love, and promises you will make here today." The ring has been a symbol of many things too many people. The ring is created of a material that will never tarnish, symbolizing your love as it is today will stay forever untarnished. The ring is created also in a perfect circle; it has no end, signifying that your love for each other will remain forever.

Usually the ring symbolizes a love that is solid and lasting everlasting, there is a commitment between them to have a life together. The term in love is called the term romantic love. According to Aristotle in Max Scheler, romantic love is deemed to be of a higher metaphysical and ethical status than sexual or physical attractiveness alone. The idea of romantic love initially stems from the Platonic tradition that the transcends the particularities of the physical body (Scheler, 1954).

Same with regarded to the previously presented explanation and based on the source of the oxford dictionary, it is quite clear that the word "ring" in this lyric is a symbol of eternal and immortal love.

Sixth Title : The song lyric Titled “It Was A Very Good Year”

Data No 17: When I was seventeen it was a very good year
 It was a very good year for small town girls and soft summer nights
 We'd hide from the lights on the village green

The quotation above is a sentence that contains the symbol of love. It could be said if the sentence shows a meaning that implies if the love is divided into several periods. The first mentioned is love takes place in the teenage years. We must have experienced this love, where there is a sense of doubt, and confusion in finding all can be said also relationship is woven there is no clarity and just only for the game.

The understanding on the meaning of the above collection is perfect with what has been said by Umberto Eco, who is a historian, an essayist, Novelist and semiotics from Italy, reveals "signs can be used to express truth, as well as to tell lies (Eco, 1979).

The quote contained in this lyric according to eco is a sentence that shows the existence of a symbol of love. The sentence says clearly and honestly according to what happens to a journey of love in adolescence.

Still the same as what Umberto Eco said if the sign can be used to declare the truth, as well as to tell lies. Signs there can be varied, including into a symbol of a sentence. In the next quote also again found the existence of a symbol of love that states when the life of romance was passed in some age of a person. The quotation is as follows,

Data No 18 : Then I was thirty-five it was a very good year
 It was a very good year for blue-blooded girls
 Of independent means, we'd ride in limousines their chauffeurs would drive

Maturity of a person in a relationship is undeniably influenced by the age of someone in running the relationship, the more mature one age, the better the romance that they both intertwine. Adulthood is a period of adaptation to new patterns of life and new social expectations. (Hurlock, 1966).

Based on this, the quote on this lyric is a phrase that expresses a symbol of love which means a love that begins too mature All that is seen when it has been analyzed using the existing theory is very clear symbolize it, from the start age thirty-five years old is very easy to predict the true meaning.

In the next quotation, in this sentence is clearly there will be a symbol of love that shows if the love will not be cracked by someone's age. Here's a quote that explains it,

Data No 19 : But Now the days grow short, I'm in the autumn of the year
 And Now I think of my life as vintage wine from fine old kegs
 From the brim to the dregs, and it poured sweet and clear

If we analyze in-depth then in the quotation from the lyrics there are some words that show when a love is timeless eaten by time. "the days grow short" contains meaning when the age of a person will increasingly aging day, while other words that reinforce the previous statement that is on the word "autumn" a word that symbolizes when the autumn is like the age of humans who will be eroded by the day.

The quotation can be regarded as a symbol because according to Perrine in Literature, structure, Sound, and Sense, states that a symbol may have more than one meaning. He adds that it is most effective a symbol is like many faceted jewels. It flashes different colors when it is turned in the light. Furthermore, the area of symbols is always controlled by the context. Therefore, it can be said that the meaning of a literary symbol of the literary work, which means that a certain symbol has its meaning in the story (Perrine, 1974).

So it can be concluded if the quotations on these lyrics contain the symbol of love as described by the symbol theory proposed by Perrine. The quotation in this lyrics basically have only one understanding that is literally. However, after my analysis turned out to the quote from this lyric there is another meaning in accordance with the context of the sentence in a literary work that is on the lyrics. Based on the understanding expressed by the above symbol theory, the quotation on this lyric contains a love symbol of true and genuine love because his love is eternally exploited by a moment of love that never sees the status and age of the owner of love.

Seventh Title : The Song Lyrics Titled “Hello, Young Lovers”

In this lyrics there are several symbols of love that became the main character of this song include,

Data No 20 : Hello young lovers whoever you are
I hope your troubles are few

According to the definition in Oxford dictionary, the word "lover" it means a partner in a sexual or romantic relationship outside marriage. However, the word "lover" is reflective the things that fit the literal context. Can be called if the word "lover" is a designation for anyone who undergoes a relationship without a clear bond and based only on the basis of mutual love and by lacks commitment in it.

The next quotation is about the word “go with you tonight”. That quote meaning the existence of a wish to be achieved with a partner. In a relationship of love, we as human beings who have felt it all would agree if in a love often appears hope or desire that can be achieved or sometimes just as a wishful thinking. Based on this meaning, the quotation contains a symbol of love in accordance with the opinion presented by William Dillistone about the symbol.

William Dillistone argues that symbols are images of a real or imaginary object that evokes feelings or is aroused by feelings. Feelings relate to objects, to each other, and to the subject (Dillistone, 1966).

If we understand and associate with the theory of the symbols mentioned above, a word can be called a symbol because it is a picture of an imaginary real imagination that inspires feelings. The real object here is the desire of the man to go with the woman. While a desire that originally came from a fantasy that was not achieved initially, causing a sense of want to continue to make a hope that is a must in a relationship romance. Therefore, the quotation on this lyrics based on the theory of symbols put forward by William Dillistone included into a symbol. More precisely a symbol of love that implies an uncertain hope.

Data No 21: Cling very close to each other tonight

The next quotation it means a hope and a necessity that must occur in a relationship. The quote is very clear saying if it should be close to each other. In a relationship of love the expression is true. Love must be felt close to the figure of cherished to ensure harmony is always awake between the two. Presumably that phrase should be kept by every couple if you want to have a relationship of mutual benefit and happy. Do not let it be ignored because it will be fatal consequences. Baron & Byrne expressed his view of love as a combination of everything a person feels, the introduction and activity of intimacy (Byrne, 2002).

Based on what the theory said, if a love is felt as a result of an intimate relationship between the two people. Is very much in line with the quotation on the word "very close to each other" which symbolizes how important an intimate closeness between two lovers who love each other because it can lead to a very difficult love experience to forget and in the end it is called an essential love.

Data No 23 : Don't cry young lovers whatever you do

Data No 24 : Don't cry because I'm alone

Data No 25 : All of my memories are happy tonight

The three underlined words on the song's lyric quotes are a word that contains the symbols of love and each other has interrelations among the three. When associated with love then the words show a message that contains the meaning of a feeling in establish the romantic relationship. This is reinforced by the theory of love described by Robert Jeffrey Sternberg. He defined a love as a life story written by someone. Where the event contains about the personal character, interests and feelings in his connection to others. Sternberg rate, the stories depicted by everyone will be the basis of a person in making decisions in a relationship (Stenberg, 1986).

The three words are "cry", "alone" and "happy" when referring to what sternberg has explained to a symbol. Cry, alone, and happy is a picture of human nature in general and does not look so special to know. After the words are carefully analyzed, they all contain a symbol of love that shows the inner feelings of each human being in a relationship. In addition, in a love not only a pleasure that will be felt because, in fact the love also have a very beautiful things to remember. But, the sadness will always be felt when we can not meet with my lover, solitude will also be felt in a relationship because there will be a time in a relationship we feel it no matter what the cause. So it can be concluded when the three words is a word that has a symbol of love that can only be felt by people who are in a relationship with a loved person.

Eight Title : The Song Lyrics Titled “When The Wind Was Green”

Data No 26 : It was on my lips and its kiss was fair

The underlined word on this lyrical quotation contains interrelated and mutually supportive meanings. The word lips and kiss symbolize an erotic love. Love that only aims for the needs of lust alone.

According to Aristotle in Alan Soble, the term eros (Greek erasthai) is used to refer to that part of love as a passionate and intense desire for something; It is often referred to as sexual desire, hence the modern Notion of "erotic" (Greek erotikos) (Soble, 1998).

Based on the theory mentioned above, if a love is not only related to all things beautiful and pseudo, according to Aristotle in love there is also an erotism that makes a negative thing in it. For people who live in Indonesia, then it is kissing the lips is a very disgraceful act if done by an unmarried couple. However, unlike the case of perception in the United States and Europe that assume in a relationship of love then the habit is a common thing. So it is very clear if the act of kissing the lips is a part of the symbol of love.

Data No 27, When the wind was red like your lips on mine
It caressed my face and it tossed my hair

The phrase underlined in this lyrical quotation is part of the symbol of love that existence an erotic love or a form of love in which there is a passion and a desire for sexuality.

The term Eros (Greek erasthai) is used to refer to that part of love constituting a passionate, intense desire for something; it is often referred to as a sexual desire, hence the modern notion of "erotic" (Greek erotikos) (Soble, 1989).

In the opinion of Alan Soble above, it is obviously said if a love is intended to show because of a passionate sexual desire of passion. Love like this if maintained by each couple will not have a good impact on their lives. But, the fact that an erotic love is not completely negative because it can give a happiness for each couple.

Data No 28 : They were flying, crying

The word "crying" is an expression of a man who is experiencing severe things and sometimes experiences a disappointment over a mistake that befell him or the mistakes that others do to hurt him. Usually a cry means someone who has not been able to hold back any disappointment caused by a problem.

From that point on, Robert Jeffrey Sternberg's theory of the meaning of love explains what love is all about. He argues that love is also defined as a life story written by someone. Where the event contains about the personal character, interests and feelings in his connection to others. Sternberg rate, the stories described by everyone will be the basis of a person in making decisions in a relationship (Sternberg, 1966).

Love is a life story written by someone, whose content is about personal character, interests and feelings towards others. On the basis of that word "crying" included into a symbol of love. Because the word is very clearly an expression of the feelings that often arise in the relationship of romance. Sadness is a common thing, as in love sadness arises from the inability to control the passions that are interfered with by the feelings of mind.

Ninth Title, The Song Lyrics Titled “Once Upon A Time”

Data No 29 : Once upon a time a girl with moonlight in her eyes

Data No 30 : Put her hand in mine and said she loved me so

Based on the above data, the underlined quote is a sentence that shows a symbol of love. In the sentence, the researcher finds out if the sentence is an expression of feelings conveyed by the man to his lover. The sentence is a form of praise that comes out of the depths of the heart to reveal how beautiful the woman she loves.

This is supported by the opinion of Chadwick. He defines symbolism can be defined as the art of the expressing ideas and emotions not by describing them by not defining them through over comparisons with concrete images, but by suggesting them in the mind of the reader through the use of express symbols (Chadwick, 1971).

Based on the statements from Chadwick has said above, the quotation on this lyric is part of the symbol of love that shows the expression of feelings and ideas that appear to show a real beauty that is found in the figure of a woman who is loved. So can I say if quotations are part of the symbol of love because the author defines a phrase that means a sincerity of the heart with an indirect portrayal, but through a certain object that is like a moon shining brightly which means it refers to the woman who becomes the light in her life bringing a lot of something new and can give the positively effect for each other.

In next quotation the sentences that underlined above belong to the love symbols that researchers find in these lyrics. This is because the sentence is a form of love caused by the desire of both.

According to Stenberg classifies the theory of love by dividing it into three components, proximity, passion and commitment. It encapsulates in a triangular shaped image known as the Sternberg Love Triangle. Desire is a powerful impulse to be with someone in love, supported by physical and sexual attraction (Stenberg, 1986).

Passion in a love is needed, it is intended to strengthen the sense of closeness among others, also adds a harmony in a relationship romance. According to what Stenberg has said the urge to always be with a partner with physical and sexual attraction is, what is called passion in love. However, true love never takes advantage of each other, it has a very positive impact on their lives. In addition, in the above quoted lyrics, when linked by the theory of love according to Jeffrey Stenberg the quotation is arguably a sentence that symbolizes a love. The desire to hold the partner's hand is part of the activity that takes place in a love and based on what the researcher himself is experiencing, it is a very unusual thing happily.

Data No 31 : How the breeze ruffled through her hair
How we always laughed as though tomorrow wasn't there

Based on the data listed above, the quote shows at a conclusion that represents a love. The sentence gives meaning if a love that gives effect that is very influential for human life. In the mind and mind that there is only the figure of a beloved woman, starting from how her hair unraveled when blown by the wind, how he smiled everything is noticed very clearly. And according to Erich Fromm all actions is love. Love is an active force that resides within the person. Love always contains certain basic elements, namely attention, awareness, responsibility, appreciation and understanding of each other (Fromm, 1990).

When viewed from the theory of love that has been presented above is very clear when in love there is a caring because it is an effect that arises on all forms of affection that has been devoted by the whole body soul for the lover. And from the meaning contained from these lyric pieces is very clear once if the author tries to insert the symbol of love a concern and attention that both activities refer to a single act of love.

Data No 32: Everything was ours, how happy we were then

The underlined quote has a love symbol in it. Robert Jeffrey Sternberg, Robert Jeffrey Sternberg. Robert Jeffrey Sternberg. He defined a love story written by someone. Where the event contains about the personal character, interests and feelings in his connection to others. Sternberg rate, the story of a person in making decisions in a relationship (Stenberg, 1986).

After the words are carefully analyzed, they all contain a symbol of love that shows the inner feelings of each human being in a relationship. In addition, in a love not only a pleasure that will be felt because, in fact the love also have a very beautiful things to remember. Happy is a word that is often spoken of every couple of lovers who are in love. Basically love is so beautiful and happy because we have found the best person who always waits in every prayer. Of all the explanations that have been described, can be said if happiness is always synonymous with love because it is not surprising when the author slipped words in this lyrics. All of it aims to strengthen the reader if true happiness will be felt if we have the love of someone who is loved.

The tenth Title : “Somewhere In Your Heart”

Data No 33 : Somewhere in your heart, try to find a place for me

Data No 34 : Somewhere in your heart, I won't care where it might be

This song lyrics is very interesting because, just from the tittle is seen there are many a words that contains the symbol of love. It can be proven by the author when analyzed according to data is presented above.

The two underlined words of the data contained in these lyrics are related to each other. The author writes the words "heart" and "care" at the same time. It proves that true love is derived from a sense of caring for someone we love so that there arises the words "heart" or love. Every living person must have a heart, a heart that mixes with the feeling of wanting to have and want to love it wholeheartedly is called love. Every soul must have love, this is confirmed by Erich Fromm's opinion with his theory of love, he mentions if a love is an active force residing in humans. Love always contains certain basic elements, namely attention, responsibility, appreciation and understanding of each other (Fromm, 1990).

The love requires attention, and the understanding of each partner to become a timeless harmony. A love comes because it begins with a sense of mutual love between two hearts and the same feelings that want to always be together and do not want to be separated by anything. Based on the above explanation, clearly delivered when the heart and care is part of the symbol of love that both have relevance to one another. Our heart will speak to the soul and mind when we get a caring from others.

Data No 35 : One little corner may not mean so much to you

In this quotation there is a symbol of love in the form of a hope from a man to be able to have and get the heart of a woman he really loves. Love certainly has often been under the previous discussion if a love has many perceptions, terms, understanding and also the meaning contained therein. However, what is always certain and will continue to exist include a hope, or the language generally is waiting. To get a love certainly not easy this is felt by the author at this time. Many struggles and sacrifices must be done for him. When all the efforts we have done then the most frightening is hope, waiting for a certainty whether all we do it will have an impact on the desired results. Therefore, the symbol of a sentence will be difficult to find if we do not understand it. In addition, with symbols, a sentence is said to be a symbol because it has many meanings outside the context literally. This opinion is underscored by the symbol theory described by Perrine.

According to him, Literature, structure, Sound, and Sense, states that a symbol may have more than one meaning. He adds that it is most effective a symbol is like many faceted jewels. It flashes different colors when it is turned in the light. Furthermore, the area of a symbol's is always controlled by the context. Therefore, it can be said that the meaning of a literary symbol of the literary work, which means that a certain symbol has it meanings in the story (Perrine, 1974).

Based on the theory of symbols Perrine is said to be clearly delivered when a sentence in literature is called a symbol because it has another meaning that is different from the meaning literally, and can be called a symbol because the meaning is supported by the context of the sentence that supports it so that it has the appropriate meaning with the object being addressed by the sentence. In addition, in this lyric, from the meaning contained in it when viewed from the context as a whole will have a meaning that refers to one object that is a hope and waiting that is part of human activity to the idea and the soul in a relationship of love.

Data No 36 : Somewhere in your dreams, let my lips come close to you

The quotation shows the existence of a symbol of love that shows a love that full of eroticism will lust. Researchers can conclude this because it is seen from the meaning contained in the sentence. Like the theory of symbols that have been described in the previous discussion by Perrine, if the symbol is contained in the sentence seen from its meaning. Or can be said if the symbol is a sentence that has a different meaning from the literal meaning, but has its own meaning in accordance with the context of the sentence is intended (Perrine, 1974).

That's what the author's reference in determining the phrase contained in the excerpt of this lyric into the symbol of love. First, seen from it so that it is conveyed by the author himself that eroticism in love is a real existence. Another thing that supports why the phrase is included into the symbol of love because based on the theory of love proposed by Elaine Hatfield. He explains if a love is based on passion is love that is mortal because it is influenced by physical attraction factor. The characteristics of this type of love are the intense emotional appeal, anxiety, and sensuality. According to him, love is a blend of comfort and affection that is also based on the passion.

4.2. The Denotative and Connotative Meanings in Each Symbol of Love Found in Frank Sinatra song lyrics

Roland Barthes uses the term orders of signification. First order of signification is denotation, while connotation is second order of signification. The first order includes markers and markers. This sign is called the meaning of denotation. Then from the sign it comes another meaning, another mental concept attached to the sign. This new usage then becomes a connotation.

Thus, in the concept of Barthes, the connotative sign does not merely have additional meanings but also contains both denotative denominations that underlie its existence. In fact, this is Barthes's significant contribution to the perfection of Saussure's semiology, which ceases to be denoted in denotative terms. The following will present the results of the analysis containing the denotative and connotative meanings in each symbol of love from the Frank Sinatra

Data No 1: I’ll only miss her when I think of her
And I’ll think of her all the time

The meaning chart of the meaning of denotation and connotation according to Roland Barthes on the word "miss" will be explained as below:

R (1) The word is usually used as an expression of feeling.	(2) The term is often used in a relationship between couples who have mutual feelings for each other, and have a love feelings	Denotation (Primary meaning)
(3) Miss
R (I) A longing is unbearable because of it is always thought of by the figure of the lover that always perches in the mind.	(II) a longing that can cause something fatal to the soul and mind to everyone who is in love because of too often holding a longing.	Connotation (Secondary meaning)
(III) Meeting to release the longing

Based on the table above, the signifier of the word "miss" is addressed by the signifier in R (1) has the meaning of a very common word used to express a feeling. The signifier has a relation with the signified on R (2) which means a term normally used by a couple of humans in a relationship. After the signifier and signified on R (1) above converge, then it is called a denotation meaning.

After the meaning of connotation, it comes the second level meaning of the word "miss" which is included into the symbol of love. As indicated by the signifier in R (I) above, if a longing is unbearable because of it is always thought by the figure of the lover that always perched in the mind. The signifier has a relation with the signified shown by R (II) in the table that has a meaning a longing that can cause a fatal consequence for the soul and mind for everyone who is in love because of too often holding a longing because of it cannot realize everything that wants to achieve together, then comes a new meaning aimed at R (III) that is a "meeting".

The form of new meaning that appears in relation to the word "miss," if in a lovers' love when they have experienced an extraordinary longing, they will plan a meeting to let go of all their longings.

As it has been mentioned above there has been a similar process, but there is a difference, namely that once this signifier and signified come together, what emerges is the second stage of expansion. The signifier in this second stage becomes "meeting". This signifier is called meta language. In addition, the terms of denotation and connotation have long been known.

The Barthes's researcher is to show the process of the occurrence of the two terms so that it becomes clear from where the meaning comes. The meaning of the word "miss" in accordance with the theory of denotation and connotation that gives birth to a new meaning of "meeting" is part of the symbol of love contained in the lyrics of this song. This is supported by the opinion conveyed by Baron & Bryne who explain that if a love is considered a combination of everything a person feels, the introduction and activity are on intimate relations (Byrne, 2000).

Based on what has been described by Baron & Bryne above, the word "miss" is a symbol of love because of it is part of any combination of feelings felt by people who are having relationships romance. Longing in this context is very diverse because of many intimate activities that often occur in a romance resulted in longing. It could also be the result of the frequent intimacy of intimacy so that everyone who experiences love will be very natural when it feels longing.

The table is contained the analysis of the word “think” by theory of denotation and connotation meaning from Roland Barthes.

R (1) A word normally used by humans to think.	(2) It could be an idea or idea created because of of an interest in something.	Denotation (Primary meaning)
(3) Think
	R (I) With her elegant and beautiful figure, make a man always think about every form of physical partner.	(II) Ascertained when everyone who is in love will think of a partner because of in his mind there is only a figure the woman he loves no other female figure.
(III) Longing someone special
Connotation (Secondary meaning)

Based on the table above, the meaning occurs in two stages. Signs (Signifier and signified) in the first stage and together so as to form a marker in the second stage, then in the next stage of markers and markers that have been fused this can form a new sign that is an extension of meaning.

The signifier from the word "think" is addressed by the signifier in R (1) which is a very common word used by humans to think. The signifier that has a relation with the signified shown by R (2) in the form of a word thought by humans can be an idea or idea arising from an interest in a thing. After the signifier and signified on R (1) above converge, then it is called a denotation meaning.

After denotation, a second level meaning of the word "think" is included into the symbol of love. As indicated by the signifier on R (I) if the female figure looks attractive from her physical, therefore it makes the man more concerned with it. The signifier has a relation with the signified shown by R (II) in the table that has meaning with every day to meet and always think about the figure of the woman he loves, then a new sign is shown by R (III) that is a "longing".

The form of the new meaning that appears in relation to the word of "think" in accordance with the context of a relationship of romance. Human being who is in a relationship of romance will always experience the longing because of in every day in their minds each there is only a figure of a person who is loved. So then it makes a longing.

As has been described above the same process occurs, but there is a difference namely that once this signifier and signified come together, what emerges is the second stage of the form expansion. TheV signified in this second stage becomes "longing".

After being analyzed based on the theory of the expansion of meaning from Roland Barthes, in the quote "think" the meaning changed to a large area resulting in a new sign that is a "longing". This is not surprising because love according to Erich Fromm is an activity, it does not mean anything other than work, activity, and orientation. Love is not a commodity that can be bartered and traded let alone imposed by others because he cannot be realized by forcing. Love is a freely voluntary choice of self-will and rational (Fromm, 2008).

Based on what explained by Erich Fromm above if the love is an activity that is more emphasis on work activities, as well as an orientation. This is very in accordance with the word "think" which has a second level of meaning to be "longing", because of in the second love it is an activity caused by the activity of the human mind is always oriented to everything against the couple, then with it makes a longing outstanding. And very clear if the word is a quote that contains the true symbol of true love.

Data No 2 : Maybe in time, I guess, the longing will grow the slightest bit less

R (1) The word is usually used as an expression of feeling.	(2) A form of human feeling because of it often experiences a habit.	Denotation (Primary meaning)
(3) Longing
R (I) In a love of longing it is a common thing and it will always be felt because of love makes addiction.	(II) the longing for everything that has happened with the couple starts from the human mind that never bored.	Connotation (Secondary meaning)
(III) Thinking our Loving

Based on the table above, the meaning occurs in two stages. Signs (Signifier and signified) in the first stage and together so as to form a signified in the second stage, then in the next stage of signifier and signified that have been fused this can form a new sign that is an extension of meaning.

The signifier from the word "longing" is addressed by the signifier in R (1) that is a word that usually used as an expression of human feeling. The signifier has a relation with the signified shown by R (2) that is a form of human feeling as it often experiences a habit that often occurs. After the signifier and signified shown by R (1) above converge, then it is called a denotation meaning.

After denotation, a second level meaning from the word "longing" is included into the symbol of love. As indicated by the signifier on R (I) in the form of a word that indicates if in love there is a longing that is common and will always be felt because of love makes addiction. The signifier has a relation with the signified shown by R (II) In the table that means that the longing for all the things that have happened with the couple starts from the mind of man who never tired and always love his partner, then emerged a new sign addressed to R (III) is "Thinking".

The form of new meaning that appears is relation to the word of "longing" that is in accordance with its context in the love relationship if the desire is caused by the human mind that tends to always imagine every detail of the form and all that has been shared with loved ones.

In the quotation of the word "longing" in this lyric, after the researcher analyzed this research using the expansion theory of meaning from Roland Barthes, a new sign appeared that was a longing. This is not surprising because of in love according to Byron & Byrne as described earlier, they have a view of love that is consider as a combination of everything that a person feels, the introduction and activity in a sexual relationship (Byrne, 2000).

Based on what has been described above, if the word "longing" is a part from the symbol of love that shows the existence of a combination the feelings with a sense that is felt by someone when must get used to not get all intimate activities with the lover. So based on the meaning that has been described earlier, if the word "longing" is a symbol of love that shows a feeling of someone who is experiencing longing. So emerged a sign, if the word "longing" begins an activity that drains the mind and physical that is "thinking" both of them have a relationship with each other.

Second Title :        The song lyrics Titled “When Somebody Loves You”

Data No 3        :        Every kiss becomes more than a kiss
                                   Each look, each touch they mean so much
                                   And that's when you discover how it feels to be a lover
 The analysis table of meaning "kiss" based on denotative and connotative meaning theory from Roland Barthes.

R (1) An activity that is usually done by a couple who are in love.	(2) Such an activity is usually show an affectionate kissing that becomes a way to prove the sincerity of the heart towards the couple.	Denotation (Primary meaning)
R (I) A Kissing is also categorized as a love that is only centered on the passions and sexual arousal.	(II) However the meaning of a real kissing can be felt with a couple who is attached to a sacred promise and having a strong commitment.
(3) Kiss		Connotation (Secondary meaning)

Based on the table above, the signifier of the word "kiss" is addressed by the signifier in R (1) is an activity that is usually done by a couple who are in love. The signifier has a relation with the signified shown by R (2) that is an activity is usually show an affectionate kissing that becomes a way to prove the sincerity of the love towards the couple. After the signifier and signified on R (1) above converge, then it is called a denotation meaning.

After the meaning of connotation, it comes the second level meaning of the word "kiss" which is included into the symbol of love. As indicated by the signifier in R (I) above, if a kissing is also categorized as a love that is only centered on the passions and sexual arousal. The signifier has a relation with the signified shown by R (II) in the table that has a meaning that real kissing can be felt with a couple who is attached to a sacred promise and having a strong commitment, then comes a new meaning aimed at R (III) that is "an affection".

The form of new meaning that appears in relation to the word of "kiss" which is a touch or caress with lips as a sign of love, sexual desire, or speech. This indicates when the word kiss is synonymous with activities that are always associated with sexual desire and tend to be negative. But in fact it is false.

According to Georges Vajda quotes a passage from the Zohar referring to the divine kiss, 'Why do Scripture employ this phrase? In fact kisses mean the joining together of spirit to spirit. This is why the bodily organ which administers the kiss is the mouth, through which breath is inhaled and exhaled. Then again, kisses of love are given with the mouth [thus] inseparably linking spirit with spirit. It is for this reason that he soul soul goes out in a kiss, sticks fast to another spirit, to a spirit from whom he will be separated no more. Their joining together is called a kiss. When they say 'Let him kiss me with his kisses of his mouth', the People of Israel calls for the sticking fast between spirit and spirit which will never be separated.

Based on the above table, if the word "kiss" is a part that contained the symbol of love that actually has a meaning that does not contain elements of eroticism, but the kiss in this case is more understanding if the love will be poured through the mouth because, according to the belief of the human spirit out of the mouth, so when humans are doing a kiss with the lips then it actually happens a process of unification of spirits in the soul of the two pairs of human. So that makes love grow among them more strong and harmonious.

So the conclusion of the word "kiss" which is a form of denotative signifier and has a relationship with the meaning in the form of a second level of meaning called connotative meaning in this analysis indicates the existence of a "affection" that is a form of the result if a kiss is a result from a lover who is in love.

The analysis table of meaning "look" based on denotative and connotative meaning theory from Roland Barthes.

R (1) Direct one's gaze in a specified direction.	(2) Something's that have a beautiful form to looking, it could be an interesting object as well as a figure of a very charming woman	Denotation (Primary meaning)
(3) Look

R (I) This is a further form of meaning from the process of seeing, usually in the form of an admiration for the opposite sex because he has a special thing.	(II) A form of beauty or kindness of a person's that makes us fall in love with him	Connotation (Secondary meaning)
(III) a symbol that showed an admiration about everything that make us fall in love

Based on the table above, the signifier of the word "miss" is addressed by the signifier in R (1) has the meaning of direct one's gaze in a specified direction. The signifier has a relation with the signified shown by R (2) it mean a something's that have a beautiful form to looking, it could be an interesting object as well as a figure of a very charming woman. After the signifier and signified on R (1) above converge, then it is called a denotation meaning.

After the meaning of connotation, it comes the second level meaning of the word "look" which is included into the symbol of love. As indicated by the signifier in R (I) above, this is a further form of meaning from the process of seeing, usually in the form of an admiration for the opposite sex because he has a special thing. The signifier has a relation with the signified shown by R (II) that is a form of beauty or kindness of a person's that makes us fall in love with him, then comes a new meaning aimed at R (III) that is “an affection”.

The form of new meaning that appears in relation to the the word of “look” which is a word that means direct one's gaze in a specified direction. With a love, there will be so many feelings felt by people who have a love. Among them is the admiration of the likes, the admiration itself is a form of human feeling in the form of a hope to be able to have it.

Based on was delivered by the opinion above, if the expectation is the desire to achieve the goal. It corresponds to that found in a love when an hope it will always appear and are bound to happen. And the results of a hope in love are very diverse, one of which was the admiration of form for the second form of meaning in this song lyric's.

The definition of hope itself according to Stotland and Gottschalk describe if a hope is a desire to achieve goals, Stotland emphasizes the importance and possibilities in achieving goals, while Gottschalk describes the positive forces that drive one to work through difficult condition (J. Lopez, 2009).

Admiration refers to a great respect and approval that we feel for another. Usually in all our lives there are people that we truly admire. This admiration can result due to certain qualities, conduct, intelligence, leadership or personality of the individual. This is why we admire people of different backgrounds and walks of life. It is natural for us to admire a singer for his talent while admiring an employee for his dedication. When admiring people, we use different judgments based on which emotions of admiration emerge in us.

The analysis table of meaning "lover" based on denotative and connotative meaning theory from Roland Barthes.

R (1) A partner in a sexual or romantic relationship outside marriage.	(2) Someone who is always there when we need it, happy or hard to pass along, always give tireless devotion and not complain to get true love.	Denotation (Primary meaning)
(3) Lover
R (I) As a figure who is always loyal to beside us, always be patient and always to attend no matter what the condition.	(II) a lover who is ready and committed to being a real woman and has promised to accompany until the end.	Connotation (Secondary meaning)
(III) A life partner

Based on the table above, the signifier of the word "lover" is addressed by the signifier in R (1) that is a partner in a sexual or romantic relationship outside marriage. The signifier has a relation with the signified shown by R (2) which means someone who is always there when we need it, happy or sad to pass along, always give tireless devotion and not complain to get true love. After the signifier and signified on R (1) above converge, then it is called a denotation meaning.

After the meaning of connotation, it comes the second level meaning of the word "lover" which is included into the symbol of love. As indicated by the signifier in R (I) above, as a figure who is always loyal to beside us, always be patient and always attend no matter what the condition. The signifier has a relation with the signified shown by R (II) in the table that has a meaning a lover who is ready and committed to being a real woman and has promised to accompany until the end., then comes a new meaning aimed at R (III) that is “a life partner”.

The form of a new meaning that appears in relation to the word "lover" which refers to a beloved object that is a life partner. These matters have relation with the meaning of the second form of the word which means “a life partner”. A life partner in this context contains a symbol of love that has a very deep meaning. Based on the theory of love that has been developed by Robert Jeffrey Sternberg, he defines if the love is a life story written by someone. Where the event contains about personal characters, interests and feelings in relation to others. Sternberg rate, if the story that represented by everyone will be the basis of a person in making decisions in a relationship (Stenberg, 1986).

Based on the explanation from theory of love that has been presented before, if a love is a life story written by someone. The story is a series of events in a relationship romance. It can be a painful event, fun or annoying. All the order of events contained in a love has a definite purpose that is to find the best a life partner for the person who is having the true love.

It is very clear that the purpose of a love is to get a life partner that requires a very long search process. Not necessarily every romance that we build with our "lover" will end with beautiful thing, it takes the faith from a heart and have adult mindset, thoughts in order to get the best a life partner to accompany the end of our life. Berdasarkan hasil analisis dari data terakhir yang digunakan oleh peneliti dalam menganalisis menggunakan teori pemaknaan bentuk secara denotasi dan konotasi, diperoleh sebuah makna yang menunjukkan adanya sebuah symbol dari cinta. Sebuah cinta yang erotis menjadi symbol cinta yang ditunjukkan oleh kalimat didalam lirik ini.

The term eros (Greek erasthai) is used to refer to that part of love constituting a passionate, intense desire for something; it is often referred to as a sexual desire, hence the modern notion of "erotic" (Greek erotikos). In Plato's writings however, eros is held to be a common desire that seeks transcendental beauty-the particular beauty of an individual reminds us of true beauty that exists in the world of Forms or Ideas.

So based on the above opinion of Eros is a love based on sexual passion, there is a physical attraction, and a sense of want to have. In this context, the other person is not seen as a person/object but only as an object. Eros is a love that is addressed to others, but aims at the personal satisfaction of the one who loves.

Based on the data no 12 above is obtained if the symbol of love contained therein is a love that symbolizes eroticism. Eroticism itself is a term of Eros that refers to a love in there is a collection of lust and centered on the passion of sexuality.
